IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF WYOMING

SUPPLYBIT, LLC

Plaintiff,

vs.

ELITE MINING, INC. and ELITE MOBILE UNITS, INC.

Defendants.

Case No. 23-cv-00077-ABJ

Amended Answer to Complaint

COMES NOW, the Defendants, Elite Mining, Inc. and Elite Mobile Units, Inc., by and through their attorneys, Alexander K. Davison and Michael M. Roley, of Patton & Davison LLC, its firm of attorneys, and in response to the Plaintiff's Complaint states, adopting the paragraph sequence therein alleges as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This paragraph represents Plaintiff's description of the issues arising in the case and no response is required. To the extent a response is required, Defendants deny the averments contained within this paragraph.

2. This paragraph represents Plaintiff's assertions of disputed facts and its conclusions of law which do not require an answer for the reason that this is the province of the finder of fact and the Court. This paragraph is therefore denied.

3. This paragraph represents Plaintiff's assertions of disputed facts and its conclusions of law which do not require an answer for the reason that this is the province of the finder of fact and the Court. Defendants specifically deny the allegation that Plaintiff has suffered $9,032,945 in damages. All other averments in this paragraph are likewise denied.

THE PARTIES

4. Defendants are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the averments contained in this paragraph and therefore deny this paragraph in its entirety.

5. Admitted as of the date of filing of the Complaint.

6. Admitted as of the date of filing of the Complaint.

7. Defendants deny this paragraph in part because it is unclear what the term "involved" means in the current context. Defendants admit this paragraph to the extent that part of their business operations entail providing services to customers within the cryptocurrency industry.

8. Defendants admit in part that Elite Mobile Units, Inc. is a subsidiary of Elite Mining, Inc. Defendants deny in part the balance of this paragraph because it is unclear what the term "equipment" alludes to.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

9. This paragraph represents Plaintiff's conclusion of law which does not require an answer for the reason that it is the province of the Court. This paragraph is therefore denied.

10. This paragraph represents Plaintiff's conclusion of law which does not require an answer for the reason that it is the province of the Court. This paragraph is therefore denied.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. Defendants are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth or falsity of the averments contained in this paragraph and therefore deny this paragraph in its entirety.

16. This paragraph describes the processes and purposes for how cryptocurrency is mined and contains no allegations or averments against the Defendants. Defendants do admit that Application Specific Integrated Circuit Miners are used to solve cryptographic problems when mining for cryptocurrency but deny that a typical system sells for between $1,000 and $10,000 depending on various factors and all other averments and inferences contained in this paragraph.

17. This paragraph describes the processes and purposes for how cryptocurrency is mined and contains no allegations or averments against the Defendants. Therefore, no response is required of Defendants. To the extent a response is required, Defendants deny this paragraph in its entirety.

18. Defendants are without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to how Plaintiff operates its business and therefore deny this paragraph in its entirety.

19. Defendants admit that they provide hosting services to cryptocurrency mining companies but deny that that they provide “ancillary services to cryptocurrency mining companies” because it is unclear what “ancillary services” entails in this context.

20. Admitted.

21. Admitted.

22. This paragraph represents Plaintiff’s interpretation of the parties’ obligation under the Agreement. To the extent any response is required, Defendants deny any inferences or conclusions to be drawn from this averment and state that the Agreement speaks for itself.

23. Defendants admit this paragraph is a proper quotation of Section 1 of the parties’ “Agreement” and admit that the Agreement speaks for itself. Any inferences or conclusions in this paragraph are denied.

24. Defendants admit this paragraph is a proper quotation of Section 3 of the “Agreement” and that the Agreement speaks for itself. Any inferences or conclusions in this paragraph are denied.

25. This paragraph represents Plaintiff’s interpretations as to what Section 17 of the Agreement states. To the extent is response is required, Defendants deny the averments contained within this paragraph.

26. This paragraph represents a partial quotation of Section 17(C) of the Agreement. Defendants admit this is a correct partial quotation and deny any conclusions or inferences that may be drawn from the partial quotation and affirmatively assert that the Agreement speaks for itself.

27. This paragraph represents a partial quotation of Section 17(D) of the Agreement. Defendants admit this is a correct partial quotation and deny any conclusions or inferences that may be drawn from the partial quotation but affirmatively assert that the Agreement speaks for itself.

28. This paragraph represents a partial quotation of Section 17(H) of the Agreement. Defendants admit this is a correct partial quotation and deny any conclusions or inferences that may be drawn from the partial quotation but affirmatively assert that the Agreement speaks for itself.

29. Defendants admit that an Memorandum of Understanding was executed but affirmatively assert that the Memorandum of Understanding speaks for itself.

30. This paragraph represents a partial quotation of Section 1 of the Memorandum of Understanding. Defendants admit this is a correct partial quotation of the cited provisions and deny any conclusions or inferences that may be drawn from the partial quotation but affirmatively assert that the Agreement speaks for itself.

31. This paragraph represents a partial quotation of Section 2(d) of the Memorandum of Understanding. Defendants admit this is a correct partial quotation of the referenced provision and deny any conclusions or inferences that may be drawn from the partial quotation but affirmatively assert that the Agreement speaks for itself.

32. Admitted.

33. Admitted.

34. Defendants admit the parties executed the Amendment. The balance of this paragraph is a quotation of the Amendment to which Defendants admit is a correct quotation but affirmatively assert that the Agreement speaks for itself.

35. Denied.

36. Defendants admit Plaintiff paid the additional $250,00 payment on or around the alleged date but deny the remaining averments in this paragraph.
